

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

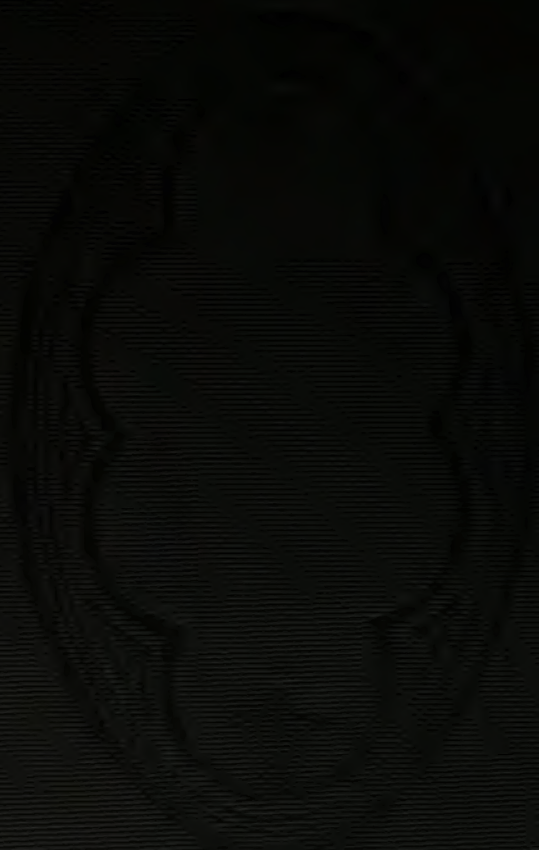

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, BOSTON, JAN. 21, 1918.

To the Honorable Senate and the House of Representatives.

I have the honor to submit herewith, in compliance with section 330, chapter 835, Acts of 1913, a report of the number of assessed polls, the number of registered male and female voters at the date of the last annual State election and city and town elections, and the total number of persons, male and female, who voted at each such election in every city and town, and in every voting precinct therein, together with the number of votes received by each candidate for nomination and for election for a State office, and for election for a State committee.

In further compliance with the law above quoted, I submit the following recommendation:—

That provision be made to permit voters who are in the polling place before the hour for closing the polls a reasonable opportunity to vote.

RETURNS UNDER THE "CORRUPT PRACTICES" LAW.

Constitutional Convention.

Under the provisions of chapter 835, Acts of 1913, as amended by chapter 783, Acts of 1914, there were received from candidates for nomination a total of 917 returns, of which 89 were premature, 192 were late, 14 were irregular, and 14 were both late and irregular. Seventy-seven failed to file returns.

The number of returns transmitted to the Attorney-General, as apparently in violation of law, was 309.

There were 329 returns of no payments, 6 payments to political committees, 571 payments other than to political committees, and 11 payments both to political committees and other than political committees.

There were received from candidates for election a total of 565 returns, of which 156 were late, 9 were irregular, and 19 both late and irregular. Forty-five failed to file returns.

The number of returns transmitted to the Attorney-General, as apparently in violation of the law, was 184.

There were 123 returns of no payments, 7 payments to political committees, 416 payments other than to political committees, and 19 payments both to political committees and other than political committees.

Total expenditures for nominations as shown by returns, . . .	$25,881 47
Total expenditures for elections as shown by returns, . . .	36,356 74
Grand total,	$62,238 21 ¹

There were also received from the treasurers of political committees 17 returns, and 2 certificates stating that the aggregate receipts and disbursements did not exceed $20. Nine of the returns were transmitted to the Attorney-General as apparently in violation of law.

The net receipts were	$55,234 69
The net expenditures or disbursements were	48,532 89
The total balance unexpended,	6,701 80
The total liabilities,	17,617 83

State Election.

Under the provisions of chapter 835, Acts of 1913, as amended by chapter 783, Acts of 1914, and chapter 83, General Acts of 1917, there were received from candidates for nomination a total of 736 returns, of which 7 were premature, 223 were late, 10 were irregular, and 21 were both late and irregular. Seventy-eight failed to file returns.

The number of returns transmitted to the Attorney-General, as apparently in violation of law, was 261.

There were 347 returns of no payments, 5 payments to political committees, 370 payments other than to political committees, and 14 payments both to political committees and other than political committees.

¹ Of this amount $2,743.70 was returned by candidates as paid to political committees.

There were received from candidates for election a total of 506 returns, of which 162 were late, 7 were irregular, and 6 both late and irregular. Fifty failed to file returns.

The number of returns transmitted to the Attorney-General, as apparently in violation of the law, was 175.

There were 202 returns of no payments, 91 payments to political committees, 145 payments other than to political committees, and 68 payments both to political committees and other than political committees.

Total expenditures for nominations as shown by returns,	$37,768 92
Total expenditures for elections as shown by returns,	24,692 72

A decrease of $76,134.21 as compared with 1916.

There were also received from the treasurers of political committees 153 returns, and 244 certificates stating that the aggregate receipts and disbursements did not exceed twenty dollars. Fifty of the returns and 46 of the certificates were transmitted to the Attorney-General as apparently in violation of law.

The net receipts were	$93,970 45 ²
(A decrease of $249,794.77 from 1916.)
The net expenditures or disbursements,	91,337 12 ²
(A decrease of $229,789.05 from 1916.)
The total balance unexpended,	5,639 58
The total liabilities,	4,643 19

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT P. LANGTRY,

Secretary.

¹ Of this amount, $10,806.81 was returned by candidates as paid to political committees, a decrease of $12,612.42 as compared with 1916.

² The gross amount returned by committees as receipts was $107,553.56, and as disbursements, $104,920.23. Of these amounts, $12,563.11 was returned both as receipts and disbursements by more than one committee.

NUMBER OF ASSESSED POLLS, REGISTERED VOTERS AND PERSONS WHO VOTED AT ELECTIONS.

Apparent inconsistencies in the report may be accounted for, in part, as follows:—

First.—The number of assessed male polls includes aliens and other persons who are not qualified to become registered voters.

Second.—The number of registered male voters includes persons who are exempt from taxation and therefore are not included in the number of assessed male polls.

Third.—Many names of voters on the list at the State election are, by reason of change of residence, erased from the list of voters at municipal elections.
